The S.C. ought to have addressed the M.C. & the reply also should have gone thro the M.C. It is wrong to ignore the M.C. in this manner.

The S.C. has asked for for a list of the Insignia which this Medal is entitled to. Is this embodied in the enclosure under reference? What are the instructions if any of the S.C. in the matter?

The Dy Commr merely wanted a list of the latest type of insignia which the Muncipl Chairman is entitled to display; and copies of the Kahduris issued by him in 1907 and 1915 were sent to him

As it was reported that the Chairman intended to visit Shimoga on the 15th instant, there was no time for the Dy Comr to address him through the Mun Comr; and to avoid delay the copies were sent to him direct.

No reference about the merits of the case (i.e. of the right of the Chairman to) is in process
